

CADMAN SCORES
AGGRESSIVE WAR
IN TALK AT U. K.

Noted Exponent of Peace Declares U. S. Should Unite with Europe to Prevent Conflicts

OVERFLOW CROWD IN HALL FOR ADDRESS

Says Youth of Today to Be Future Organ of World Security

"It is the business of the United States to unite and cooperate with the other great nations of the world to promote freedom and peace among all men," declared Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, noted author, lecturer, and Congressional minister, in an address to an overflow audience of students and townspeople at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in Memorial hall.

Doctor Cadman gave an eloquent comprehensive summary of the present European situation and discussed the position of each nation in regard to the Italo-Ethiopian conflict. He said that it was his belief that had Mussolini known and realized the tremendous wave of public opinion that has arisen against aggressive warfare, he would not have entered such a project. "The Treaty of Versailles did not make peace, but made war," declared the speaker.

In discussing Germany, Dr. Cadman expressed the view that the world has expected more from this great country because of its great men and advanced culture but that there would be no peaceful settlement until the Fatherland's demands were recognized. The speaker attacked the attitude of William Randolph Hearst in regard to the world court and charged that he does not understand the problem. He defended the stand of England in the present war, saying that we should be proud of a nation who raises a cry against unmerciful and unreasoning aggression. He pointed out that some hope could be seen in the fact that for the first time in history 40 nations have convicted Mussolini of unreasonable and aggressive warfare.

The speaker stated that he held no fears for the future, and that we are improving, but have not quite reached the point where we regard men as the children of God.

'BEAT FLORIDA'
TAGS ON SALE

ODK Offers Awards to Frat, Sorority, and Individual Winners in Student Union Tag Sale

A total of 2,000 football tags for the Florida homecoming game have been distributed among fraternities, sororities and individuals, according to David Difford, president of Omicron Delta Kappa which is sponsoring the tag sale on the campus this week-end. The proceeds of this tag sale as in the past will go to the Student Union Building Fund.

The tags went on sale Wednesday noon and by Thursday noon all the tags which had been printed were already distributed.

Novel trophies will be awarded to the sorority, fraternity, and individual selling the most tags. This is the first time that an individual trophy has been awarded for tag sales. This plan enables everyone in school, regardless of whether or not he is a member of a fraternity or sorority, to sell tags for the game.

Mr. Difford reported today that the Student Union Building should be built by the fall of 1936.

'A Murder Has Been Arranged' Will Be Next Guignol Play

Historical Characters Will Be Portrayed by Costume Party in Third Act

"A Murder Has Been Arranged," a ghost story by Emily Williams and the second production of the current Guignol theatre season, will open for a week's run at 8:30 o'clock Monday night, Nov. 11.

Among the more interesting scenes in the play will be the costume party which takes part in the third act. At this time, the actors will be dressed to represent famous old-time characters in history.

Katherine Davis, playing the part of Miss Groze, will be dressed in a black velvet dress with a hoop skirt as worn by the famous Mary Queen of Scots. Jean Abel as Mrs. Wragg, will represent Katherine Parr, the last wife of Henry VIII. She will wear a green dress with hoop skirt and gold trimmings. Barbara Smith as Lady Jasper will wear a solid white dress representing Dante's Beatrice. Genevieve Lyles playing the part of Mrs. Arthur, will represent the famous Marie Antoinette and will wear a pink and blue dress with a large hoop skirt.

Among the representations of the male members of the east will be the notorious Italian prisoner, Cesar Borgia, whose costume will be worn by Howard Smathers, who portrays the role of Mr. Mullins, and the costume of Henry of Navarre, one of the French Kings in the Bourbon dynasty, worn by James North, a character which is played by Fritz De Wilde. Other characters are James Boucher as Sir Charles Jasper; Alexander Capurso as Cavendish, the orchestra leader, and Katherine Daab as the Woman.

All the costumes worn in the play have been copied from historical pictures of the characters whom they portray and were designed and made by the Guignol costume department.

Another interesting feature of the play is the set on which all action takes place. It is a dark, gruesome, green set with but few pieces of furniture on it, and in the play it represents an incomplete stage.

The play will run for a week through Saturday, Nov. 16. Reservations are obtainable at the Guignol ticket office and must be made in advance.

Cats Given Even Break To Beat
Gators Tomorrow; Many Grads
Expected Back To View Contest

Dr. John J. Tigert, President of Florida U., Will Be Honor Guest

IS FORMER COACH OF U. K. GRID TEAM

Capacity Crowd Is Expected To Jam McLean Stadium For Tilt

Dr. John J. Tigert, president of the University of Florida and the Southeastern conference, and former professor and coach here at the University, and members of the 1916 Wildcat football team, will be guests of honor at the annual Kentucky homecoming football game which will be played tomorrow on Stoll field between the Wildcats and the University of Florida Alligators. The game will be called at 2 p. m.

Dr. Tigert and Mrs. Tigert will accompany the 'Gators to Lexington and will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey during their stay in this city.

The 1916 football team, which was coached by Dr. Tigert was composed of the following players: M. J. Crutcher, now superintendent of buildings and grounds here at the University, was captain; John G. Heber, present coach of the Henry Clay Blue Devils here in Lexington; William Rodes, Charles Hayden, Ernest McIlvain, Shorty Heick, Earl Graber, J. A. Brittain, Broadus Hickson, Edgar Murphee, F. Dempsey, Earl Clemmons, Clay Simpson, August Gay and the late Howard Kinne, World War hero who was killed when his plane was shot down over the German lines.

Assistants to Dr. Tigert were S. A. "Daddy" Boles, now graduate manager of athletics at the University, and W. P. Tuttle, at present manager of a pineapple plantation in the Hawaiian Islands.

The team of that year won over Butler 39 to 3, over Centre by 68 to 0, over the University of Cincinnati by 32 to 0 and over Mississippi State by 12 to 0. It was tied by 0 to 0, and lost only to Vanderbilt, by a 45 to 0 score.

The Kentucky-Florida meeting tomorrow will be the fifth between the two institutions. In 1917, with Mr. Boles as coach, Kentucky defeated the Florida team by 52 to 0. In 1926 Kentucky was victorious by 18 to 13, but the next year the 'Gators tore up the 'Cats by 27 to 6. In their last meeting, in 1931, Florida was again defeated, this time by 7 to 2.

The forthcoming battle should result in another close decision. Kentucky and Florida both have suffered defeats more than once this season and are rated about equal. Last week while Kentucky was holding the powerful Crimson Tide to a 13 to 0 score, Florida was holding the mighty Georgia Bulldogs to a 7 to 0 score. Georgia, one week before had lost to Alabama by two touchdowns, the same that Kentucky did, so on paper Kentucky should win by one touchdown.

The two teams tomorrow will have their full strength for the first time since early season games. In the Kentucky camp Bert Johnson, Stan Nevers, Sam Potter, and Bob Davis, the all-time members of the group, went through practices this week with all the pep and enthusiasm that characterized their performances in the Ohio State game in early October. The whole Kentucky team seems to be fired with the determination to prove to Kentucky supporters that they are not growing stale. More pep and fighting spirit was shown in their latest practices than has been shown since they practiced for their encounter with the Ohio Bucks.

The Florida team will have its full strength for the first time this season. Hendricks, Bechwith, Rickett, McAnly, Kieftler, and Jenkins have all been hampered with injuries since early in September and (Continued on Page Two)

Open Season On Flagpoles Was Order When
Old Grads Returned For University Homecoming

Saturday, November 9, is the annual homecoming game. The Florida 'Gators will be the entertainment provided for the Old Timers who come back this day to tell the new generation how they did things back in "ought" something or other. Well, just for fun, let's look back and see what our honorable predecessors did do through the past 10 years.

Tut! Tut! Aren't you ashamed of yourselves, '25? You mean things! Just because you won a game you had to steal half the flagpoles in town. Yes sir, at the homecoming game when Tennessee on Thanksgiving Day the 'Cats played the 'ars off the Vols to win 23-18, in a driving storm and a sea of mud. Al Kirwin was the 'Cats' Captain. Len Tracy scored all three 'Cat touchdowns and Gayle Mohny clinched it with a field goal. Well you can't blame them much for taking the town apart and collecting little souvenirs, flagpoles for instance.

The band wagon wasn't very big and it wasn't blue, but for two years now it had been acknowledged the South's best and it rendered valiant aid to the ball toters. The band room was on the third floor of the Armory, it wore R. O. T. C. uniforms and Sergeant Kennedy of the Army was its instructor. The 50-piece organization was led by Al Weltrman and Miss Willy King.

The team in '26 was facing Centre. The day was so cold that the quarterbacks had to turn sideways when calling signals so that their breath as it froze wouldn't push the line offside. Centre made a down in the second frame and by bull luck stole the game from the 'Cats that outplayed and outgained them. It was a heartbreaker.

The Smiths and the Jones had charge of the University that year. Waller Jones was drum major, Charley Smith, band sponsor, and Frank Smith the Wildcatian. Twenty-six induced these happenings: Bronzo Sulzer directs the band... Military department earns the honor rating and can wear a blue star on the uniform sleeve... Potter is picked to have charge of intramurals... Vandebosch, Pardue, Hall, Watson, Blumhild, Kelly and Moreland join the faculty... Virgil Johnson gives another wildcat to SuKy... Students must have their pictures pasted in their ticketbooks to prevent resale.

U. K. becomes the fourth university in the South to establish a course leading to the Ph. D. degree. The Wendt shop is built... Mr.

Final Notice, Stroller Alumni!

Stroller Alumni association's celebration, Saturday, November 9, honoring the 25th anniversary of the founding of "The Strollers," student dramatic club, at the University of Kentucky, October 25, 1910, in the ballroom of the Phoenix hotel, with a breakfast at 11 a. m. and an informal supper-meeting at 6:30 o'clock, is swinging along, and a gathering of 200 persons is looked for, according to Bob Mitchell of Stroller Alumni headquarters, Louisville.

Mitchell expects the breakfast to necessarily be a limited affair, due to game-time, but is expecting the night session to be a very interesting college night. If things take turns that are expected, as present indications point they will, several greetings will be received by the time of and during the celebrations from distances and will be read from the speakers table.

The chief aim that guided the planning and completion of arrangements, since the past February, has been a desire to further the interest of and to benefit the University by moving it out to where dwells a great army of the alumni. Bob Mitchell said, "I believe that I will be the happiest boy in the state of Kentucky if this celebration culminates as well as it now seems that it will and I know that all 'old' Strollers are 'happily' anxious about it, too."

John G. Cramer, manager of the Phoenix hotel, is making great preparations in order that the party will have ever advantage. Strollers yet in attendance at the University are assured that they are welcome to attend both gatherings at the celebration and alumni Strollers feel that they will be impressed with what they see and hear.

Bits from a letter from Miss Mary Virginia Halley, 309 Brush Creek boulevard Kansas City, Mo., a '31 graduate, leading lady of cast of "Dulcy," the '28 production, are here reproduced. "It's too bad the envelop doesn't bear a forwarding address from the 14 (yes literally) places I've lived since leaving Cincinnati. Anyway, I'm mighty glad it did come, for I want to be with you in spirit on the eighth and ninth, even though I can't actually come. I wonder if other Stroller 'stars' feel as I do—that the experience was the outstanding event of their college careers. Certainly my Stroller memories are among my happiest. Last year I taught history and dramatics in a private school in a suburb of New York City. This year I'm at a private school, but it was nice to have one season of Broadway theatre, anyway."

lineups that they had planned on. However, this week it may be different. Hendricks, Beckwith and McAnly are backfield men, Rickett and Jenkins are ends, and Kichter is a tackle. All these men are included in the squad that will arrive today for the battle.

"Camels don't get your Wind"

FAMOUS ATHLETES AGREE

George M. Lott Jr. Cyril Harrison

● If you have searched for cigarette mildness, mark the words of George Lott, the tennis champion, and the 7-goal polo star, Cyril Harrison. "Camels," says Mr. Harrison, "are so mild they don't upset the nerves or affect the wind. And when I'm tired I get a 'lift' with a Camel." And Lott adds: "I understand that more expensive tobaccos are used in Camels. They are gentle on the throat. And Camels never get my wind." Turn to Camels and enjoy to the full the pleasure that comes from costlier tobaccos.

Some of the famous athletes who approve of
Camel's mildness

BASEBALL: Gabby Hartnett, Chicago Cubs; Tommy Bridges, Detroit Tigers; Dizzy Dean, St. Louis Cardinals; Lou Gehrig, New York Yankees; Melvin Ott, New York Giants.

TENNIS: Ellsworth Vines, Jr.; William T. Tilden, 2nd; George M. Lott, Jr.; Lester R. Stofen; Bruce Barnes.

GOLF: Gene Sarazen, Craig Wood, Tommy Armour, Willie Macfarlane, Helen Hicks, Denny Shute.

TRACK AND FIELD: Jim Bausch, Olympic Decathlon Champion; George Barker, Former Intercollegiate Cross-Country Champion; Leo Sexton, Olympic Shot-Put Champion.

SWIMMING: Helene Madison, Stubby Kruger, Josephine McKim, Buster Crabbe, Jane Faunt.

DIVING: Harold ("Dutch") Smith, Georgia Coleman, Pete Desjardins, Sam Howard.

So Mild! YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

● There's a bit of friendly guidance for others in what men like Lott and Harrison, Buster Crabbe and Sarazen, say about Camels. They have tested Camels for mildness—found that Camels don't affect sound wind or jangle their nerves. So turn to Camels. You'll find real hit-the-spot flavor. A distinctive, pleasing taste. Smoke Camels freely, for able-bodied Camels don't disturb their "condition." Costlier tobaccos do make a difference!

Alumni Clubs to Give Joint Plans for Banquets, Dances, Pageants and Teas Are Completed

Plans are being made to make home-coming this year the gayest and largest ever held at the University. Pageants, parties, dances, teas, and banquets head the programs for this occasion. Alumni from near and far will return to their Alma Mater to meet old friends and recall old times.

The University Alumni association and the Lexington Alumni club will sponsor a dance from 9 to 12 o'clock Saturday night in the Alumni gym with Andy Anderson and his orchestra furnishing the music.

Cups to Be Given
Winners of the house decorating contest will be announced during the dance and cups will be awarded. At the same time a cup will be presented to the downtown store which has been adjudged the winner of window decorations.

Buffet Supper
Alpha Xi Delta will entertain with a buffet supper Saturday afternoon at the chapter house in honor of the alumnae. Decorations will carry out the masochism of the two teams, alligators and wildcats.

Among those alumnae expected to attend are Ruby Dunn, Alyce Hobday, Margaret Jasper, Katy Smoot, Vivian McClure, and Betty Woodson.

Kappa Delta will open its program in celebration of its 25th anniversary with the registration of alumnae at the Lafayette hotel from 12 to 6 p. m. today and will be resumed at 8 a. m. Saturday.

The main feature of the program is a formal banquet to be held tonight in the gold room of the Lafayette hotel. Decorations will carry out the sorority colors, olive green and white, and an entertaining program has been planned by the Lexington Alumnae chapter with Mrs. H. C. Adams serving as chairman of the committee.

The Mothers' club will entertain in honor of alumnae, actives and pledges with a tea following the game Saturday at the chapter house.

Pageant to Be Given
Sunday morning a pageant will be presented at the Lafayette hotel at 10:30. The title of the pageant is "A Dream of Memories," by Olga Achtenhagen, past national president. The guests of honor will be Col. J. R. Johnson, first initiate of the chapter; Dr. Edward Ray, chapter advisor; Mr. William Hansen, faculty advisor; Mr. Field Van Meter, Winchester; and members of the Louisville Alumni club. Sixty alumni have been invited.

Strollers to Entertain
"The Strollers," student dramatic club, will celebrate its 25th anniversary Saturday. Registration of alumni will be held at the Phoenix hotel.

Plans have been made for a breakfast to be held at the Phoenix hotel at 11 a. m. Saturday. At 6:30 p. m. the Strollers Alumni association has planned a banquet at the hotel. Dr. John J. Tigert, president of the University of Florida, will be the guest speaker.

Sigma Nu Supper
A buffet supper has been planned by the members of the Lexington Alumni club of Sigma Nu in honor of the alumni who are returning for home-coming, actives, pledges and their guests to be given tonight at the chapter house.

The tables will be decorated with white roses, the flower of Sigma Nu. The principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. Guy Hughlett of the Lexington Alumni club. Other speakers will be Maury Crutcher and Dr. George Wilson, both of the alumni group, and Robert H. Stevens, president of the active chapter.

Among those who will attend are Charles and Edward Monahan, St. Matthews; Thomas Carr, Covington; Buster Hubbard, Louisville; Paul Williams and Pete Topie.

The dinner began with a fruit cocktail at the home of Edith May in Maxwellton court. The main course was served at the home of Marjorie Jenkins on Henry Clay

Since the 'Gators are going to lose this game Saturday let's be ready to celebrate right! A new dress usually helps the best of us forget the quiz we have on Monday and remember something has to dazzle the beau on the left—since we can't all be beauty queens! The best bet for the game (outside of the Kentucky team) would be one of those new tweedy looking knit suits Shipp's are showing today. One in particular that is especially attractive is a mixture of red, purple, black and green with a square neckline for the matching red ascot. The cartridge pockets will catch your eye the first thing and with this new high neckline. Then you'll love the purple ribbed blouse name is the "Foursome" and, of course, it's a Braidey.

And maybe you thought all plaids were Scotch, but you're wrong, 'cause Graves-Cox has some natty looking Irish plaid scarfs. You might remind your date of this. Perhaps he'll remember that the topcoat mother thought would "do" till Christmas is a bit thin on the edges and a new scarf will do a lot for that.

And while you're buying that Bradley, how about some new ox-fords, too? Collis's has some they call the "dogwatch". They're an innovation of one of the popular spring and summer styles—brown buck with a strap buckling across the instep, kidlined, perforated and medium-heeled.

You might round out your costume with one of those tricky three-quarter length belted jackets of white pigskin—at Denton's.

Now for something to brighten up the not-new formal you're wearing Saturday night. We suggest one of the clever Mark Cross evening bags featured by the Lafayette drug store. Remember that, although any type of metal cloth is good now, gold and pearl domineer for evening. Mark Cross also creates purses for street wear.

Wolf-Wile's are showing the new and popular initialed pins, clips, fobs, and bracelets of gold and silver. Clips and pins are "tops" in jewelry just now, you know. The most unique piece I saw was a large single clip of dull silver oak leaves placed one upon the other. This could be purchased to lighten your heart about wearing "that dress" again Sunday night.

HERE SHALL THE KERNEL, ALL

LIQUID HOSPITALITY

"If a large part of the audience insists on becoming intoxicated instead of watching the game, thousands of disgusted fans are certain to stay away from future contests."

Such is the comment which appeared on the editorial page of one of the local newspapers, following a letter received by the editor from three local citizens who were commenting on this growing menace. The Kernel last Friday issued a warning to the student body concerning the action of the Student Council on such matters.

We hoped that the disgraceful conduct displayed at the Georgia Tech game would not be noticed by anyone but the students, but apparently our hopes were in vain, as is evidenced by the letter to the editor of the local newspaper. When the condition reaches this height, persuasion must give way to action, if the growing menace is to be checked.

Ohio State has shown that it will not tolerate drinking in its stadium, by warning its patrons before the game and rigidly enforcing its ruling. The Lexington police force has promised its cooperation in halting excessive drinking, and this collaboration with the Student Council will be all the University of Kentucky athletic authorities need to curb the comparative few who feel that liquor is a necessity at a football game.

Saturday is Home-coming and we want all those who come back to enjoy themselves as much as possible, but this does not go so far as to permit them to disturb those persons who are unfortunate enough to be seated near them. Kentucky has always been noted for its hospitality, and has always been proud of the fact. Can it be that this hospitality is not genuine, but must be coaxed out of a bottle?

The Kernel does not believe that drastic action will be necessary, but in the event it is, we urge the enforcement of the ruling to its greatest extent. The home-coming game will present a good test of whether Kentuckians can still be hospitable when they leave their liquor at home.

HOME-COMING SPIRIT

Each year there comes a time when the mind of every loyal alumnus drifts homeward and he turns himself either bodily or at least in spirit back towards his old stamping ground. Such a time has been given the name of home-coming in the University calendar.

To the upperclassman it is usually a day of exuberant and sometimes over-joyous merry-making, to the senior it is a time of wondering about the future, to the alumnus it is an occasion of retrospecting into the past. But to all it is a time when the true University spirit manifests itself, perhaps more than at any other time of the school year. Hearts are light, spirits are gay but underneath there is a certain reverence and love for the campus which we call our own.

Atmosphere too plays an important part in the day. We find the various Greek houses and the dormitories in gala attire, typifying the warm spirit of welcome and enthusiasm for the school which the day represents. Downtown merchants proudly display the Blue and White and the Orange and Red in their show windows. The game, the principal attraction of the day, with it beautiful girls, colored flowers and balloons presents a glorious collegiate spectacle.

To the alumnus we say welcome home. To the undergraduate we say make your honorable predecessors feel that they are home. The friendships which are made and renewed in this way are something which cannot be bought. To you, as an integral part of the University, they are presented merely for the asking.

Let's, therefore, join together for a day of gladness, keeping in mind at the same time that underlying principle which makes for a greater University, that certain undefinable something which is the motivator of good will and progress, that priceless gem of good fellowship — University spirit.

LET'S CHEER

Again tomorrow the loyal and hard-working cheerleaders of the up and coming institution will attempt to draw from the crowd of students and alumni present at the biggest game of the year, some of that pep and enthusiasm which The Kernel still believes exists in the souls of those who attend and have attended the University even though it has not been especially apparent for the past few years and certainly not this year.

Whether it will be forthcoming we cannot venture to say, but at least every effort has been made towards seducing it from its hiding place in the warm hearts of our beautiful coeds and the cold, calloused souls of our gallant males. The hitherto unsuccessful efforts of the Interfraternity Council and SuKy to organize the freshmen into a cheering section will again be tried, making use of disciplinary measures to effect such an organization. The dashing young cavaliers who this year constitute the freshmen class of our respected institution will be lined up in the shadows of that bulwark of learning, the administration building, and, from there will be marched bodily to the glorious confines of a section designated for them within the stadium where an effort will be made to extricate from their lusty throats enthusiasm in the form of collegiate cheering which will echo from wall to wall of the massive concrete stands.

We believe that the frosh can be placed in position for such organized cheering by such methods but we seriously doubt whether any real bursts of organized collegiate exuberance will be forthcoming unless the green plebes are spurred on by their more illustrious brothers, the upperclassmen. It will be up to the staid and dignified senior, the ultra-collegiate junior and the ray-ma-taz sophomore to put the fire behind their cheering. Can the upperclassmen do it? Well!

WELCOME DOCTOR TIGERT

An outstanding guest of the University of Kentucky for the Home-coming football game Saturday will be Dr. John J. Tigert, president of the Southeastern Conference, president of the University of Florida, former United States Commissioner of Education and former member of the faculty of the University of Kentucky.

It is really a coming home to folk who really love him for Doctor Tigert, who endeared himself to the University of Kentucky and to Lexington people, not only as instructor, as a great athletic coach, but also as a citizen. The student body of the University joins with the townsfolk in extending to Doctor Tigert a very hearty welcome.

Harvard authorities have dismissed as highly improbable press reports concerning a new and deadly weapon reported recently invented by Guglielmo Marconi, inventor of wireless telegraphy. The device is said to be able to stop internal combustion engines from a considerable distance.

According to an official bulletin published by Kansas State Normal school in November, 1902, "it would be a shame if any teachers college student should be arrested for riding a bicycle at a rate of speed exceeding the lawful limit!"

night and day

By ENGY

At last that long waited-for-week-end is here...Home-coming... Have been looking forward to it with great anticipation... There will also probably be a lot of dissipation... The Lafayette and Phoenix hotels are both going to be Alumnus headquarters... Insurance companies note... Plans for this weekend are quite extravagant... Alumnus are planning big celebrations... Florida is sure to give Kentucky a tough game... Doctor Tigert is to be the guest of honor for the occasion... He was a professor at Kentucky... He was also a former football coach here... Wonder how many new yells the cheerleaders will have after tonight... The SuKy yell contest ends then... Hope they get some good ones... Wonder how the politics will run for the award for the best Home-coming decorations... A fur-lined soup bowl should be the booby prize... Many sleepless nights have been spent in trying to think up original ideas... All festivities will start Friday night.

It seems that three boys from the University of Tennessee thought the Kentucky-Alabama game was to be played in Lexington... They hitch-hiked and arrived here early Saturday morning... Upon finding out the game was to be played in Birmingham... Two of them started hitch-hiking back to that southern city... The other one took a bus to Columbus with the expectation of seeing the Ohio State-Notre Dame battle... Wonder if any of them ever read the newspapers... Maybe they'll stay in Knoxville for the Kentucky-Tennessee tilt... Don't you boys and girls forget to get your "tags" for the Florida-Kentucky game tomorrow... Also don't you girls forget to get your blue and white "corsages" from the Mortar Board associates... The "tag" money goes to the Student Union building fund... The "corsage" money goes to the Student Loan fund... Now that the original project of the All-Campus dances has been accomplished... The buying of a piano... The money from the future Wednesday night frolics will go to the Student Loan fund... A very worthy cause... If the present federal administration is not re-elected... And the FERA and NYA are discontinued... There will be many students who will have to drop out of school... With plenty of money in the Student Loan fund... They can borrow from this fund to continue their education... Let's all get behind this project...

Evidently those who made the Alabama trip had quite a good time... The cold wintry blasts have descended... There are a good many complaints about the drinking that goes on at the football games... The administration is going to take steps to curtail this form of so-called enjoyment... At Big Ten games no drinking is allowed... Anyone seen taking a drink at one of those games is immediately escorted to the gates... Not a bad idea... The Lexington Alumni association is giving a dance in the gym Saturday night... Heard Lexington was a good place to be away from last week-end... Another week gone... Did you accomplish anything... These weeks slip by without being noticed... The Chios gave a swell buffet-dinner last Friday night... Their house certainly has plenty of room in it... A new set of Kentuckian pictures will adorn the walls of the Administration building next week... From all indications the 1936 Kyian is going to be the best one ever put out by this institution... Election of Junior, sophomore, and freshmen class officers will take place soon... This is not supposed to be a scandal column... But this one is too hot to handle... And so out of the bag it comes... Those implicated please do not take offense... There are two boys on this campus who room together... They are rather well known... One has seven chins... The other is bald-headed... Both of them court out of the same sorority house... One is always trying to "fix" the other... It seems that there are a few boys in the institution who have a gift for making up ballads... And so they got together and made up two songs... And dedicated them as theme song for the two "fixers"... Here is the first one... It was written to the tune of "A Bicycle Built For Two"... Daisy May... Give me your promise true... I'm half crazy... All for the love of you... It won't be a stylish marriage... I can't afford a carriage... But you'll look sweet... Upon the seat... Of a bicycle built for two... Here is the second one... It was written by a lad from the mountains... And so you can imagine what tune is to be used... Oh... I told her I would meet her... When the clock struck twenty-three... At the stock yards... A mile out of town... Where a hog's head and pigs feet... And a horn of a Texas steer... Sell for beef steak at forty-nine cents a pound... She's my darling... She's my daisy... She's my knock-kneed and near crazy... And the hair upon her head grows upside down... Down... Upside down... Oh... They say her teeth are false... Cause they rattle when she walks... She's my one lung... Consumptive... Margie... Margie... Won't you come back... To your Baldy once again... The rest of this last ditty had to be deleted... Any more contributions to the music world will be duly appreciated... Maybe Elmer Sulzer can get these boys to write the music or lyrics... Or whatever it is... For those ballads he has been harping about for the last month...

The R. O. T. C. regiment will parade in the Armistice Day parade Monday morning... Classes will not be dismissed for the rest of the student body... See there is another Battle Wagon in town... Nevertheless it gets a person where he wants to go... Hear all sororities are going to have open houses after Saturday's game... They had better brace the sides of their houses... And nail the furniture to the floor... Remove all lamps from the walls... O. D. K. points are due tomorrow... Wonder how many will make it this time... The new student directories are really good looking... They are worth while having this year... Wonder whose idea it was for their enlargement... See the destructors are at it again... This time on Euclid avenue... In about ten years everything ought to be fixed in the city of Lexington... Can't think of anything more to write about... So will stop...

Despite the fact that fraternity and sorority houses will be decorated to the height of imagination, and these same groups will act as the perfect hosts and hostesses, along with alumni reception committees, cheers and inspiring speeches, nevertheless the week-end's piece de resistance for returning old grads will be the Saturday afternoon get-together of the local Wildcats and the 'Gators of the University of Florida.

Particularly fitting is this year's homecoming contest with Florida, as it will also bring back to the University one of its former football coaches, this time as president of the opposing school. Dr. John J. Tigert, a professor at Kentucky in 1916, also found time to act as head coach of football.

When he left the University it was to become United States Commissioner of Education in which capacity he served for a number of years before returning to institutional work as president of Florida's state university at Gainesville.

Incidentally, Doctor Tigert is also president of the Southeastern Conference, in which position he succeeded Dr. Frank L. McVey, first president of the group.

Members of the 1916 Wildcat team coached by Doctor Tigert will be the guests of honor, along with him at tomorrow's game.

Thus with the stage set for a fine Homecoming Day program, all that will be necessary is a break in the weather and a good football exhibition, to send the grads back home satisfied with their Alma Mater's progress.

Coach Chester A. Wynne's Wildcats will be making their first home appearance since the Georgia Tech game. And the Georgia Tech game is the last tilt that the 'Cats won, if you'll recall. Maybe familiar Stoll field has had something to do with the fact that they dropped their last two contests, both on Alabama soil.

At any rate, they'll be performing in front of a partisan audience tomorrow. Kentucky teams have never been great road clubs. Their best exhibitions have been staged at home and tomorrow should be no exception. It's only natural, we believe, for a team to play a better brand of football for a home crowd. The players, individually, have more spirit and the team as a whole is imbued with a natural confidence.

Earlier in the season, in anticipating the Florida game, we would have been rash enough to place the 'Gators in a lowly position among the "breathers" that Kentucky would encounter. In fact, until last week, we held that opinion.

But Florida's recent performance against the supposedly superior Georgia Bulldogs called for a swift reversal of that opinion. As a matter of fact, the 'Gators have lost their last four games but in bowing to Georgia last week, they showed that they were a team to be reckoned with at all times.

After repulsing the Bulldog thrusts repeatedly for three quarters and right down to the last few minutes, a bad break cost the Orange and Blue team a scoreless tie. With the ball in their possession on their own 40 yard line, the 'Gators attempted a quick kick which was blocked by a Georgia lineman and converted into a touchdown. It was a tough tilt to lose, especially with at least a tie game practically in their grasp.

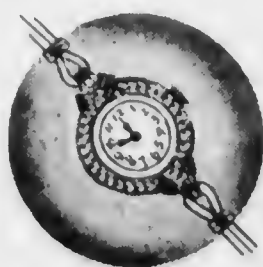

This unhappy ending won't cause the Floridians to feel any more kindly toward the Wildcats than necessary. They'll be out to win tomorrow more than ever, to vindicate themselves for the Georgia loss and to snap the losing streak that has been hounding them since early season.

As for Kentucky, take it from us that they will be in the most ferocious mood that they've been in since the Ohio State game, at least, and probably more spirited than they have been all season.

The defeats at the hands of Auburn and Alabama, coming together as they did, have stung the Wildcats and caused the coaches no end of annoyance, to put it mildly. Both players and coaches are in no frame of mind to "fool around" with Florida. They regard Florida as a formidable foe and are prepared for a real battle but are confident that they will break into the right side of the book again.

We don't mean to say that they are overconfident at all, but have that proper attitude which a well-prepared club shows before a game. It's been lacking since the Tech fracas, probably because of the injury list, among other things, but at last it's returned.

FROSH NETTERS TO REPORT; VARSITY CONTINUES DRILLS

By JOE QUINN

Candidates for the freshman basketball team will report to Coach Paul McBrayer for the first time this season, at 7:30 o'clock, Monday night, in Alumni gym. This meeting will be the first official practice session and the coaches are anxious that all freshmen who have ever played basketball appear for the initial drill. Freshmen managers are requested to report at 7 o'clock.

Varsity basketball coach Adolph F. Rupp has been working hard in the past few weeks with his squad in an effort to polish up many of the rough points which always appear in the pre-season workouts.

The varsity squad has been cut to 17 men and the daily drills have now gone beyond the easy preliminary stages. Believing all his men are thoroughly familiar with the fundamentals, Coach Rupp has been holding lengthy scrimmage sessions every day, so that he may correct weaknesses on both offense and defense.

Garland Lewis, rangy Wildcat pivot-man was the season's first casualty. He ruptured a blood vessel in his foot after losing his balance on the slippery floor during Tuesday's workout. Lewis, although able to walk with a cane, will not be back in uniform for at least another week.

While Coach Rupp has not selected any regular team, as yet, he has been using Andy Anderson and Warfield Donohue at guards, Lewis at center and Ralph Carlisle and Gorland Lewis in the forward posts, on his "first-string" team. Other members of the squad who have seen plenty of action are Bob Taylor, Charlie Gates, Billy Soler, J. Rice Walker, Bruce Davis, Billy Davis, Keith Sopher, Charlie Combs,

Bobby Evans, Charlie Mackintosh, Bobby and Auping

Coach Rupp stated yesterday that the Wildcats would meet Rutgers on January 11, at the Newark Sports Arena in Newark, New Jersey. The contract has not yet been signed because of some financial disagreement but Rupp expects to have the difficulty cleared up this week.

Following is the complete basketball schedule arranged to date. The Alumni and possibly Georgetown will be met early in December but no definite dates have yet been agreed upon.

Dec. 19—Oglethorpe, here
Dec. 23—Pittsburgh, here
Jan. 4—open

FLORIDA WRITER EXPECTS ALLIGATORS TO HIT STRIDE

Great Defensive Exhibition Last Week Gives Visitors Equal Chance to Defeat 'Cats

By FRANK S. WRIGHT

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—With a confidence which has not been evident before, the Fighting 'Gators meet the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Saturday. One might suspect that four straight defeats would plunge a football team into the depths of despair, but not these Florida 'Gators. They revealed plenty in the Georgia fray last Saturday, and they have dedicated this week's preparations to strengthening their defense, and in making their offense more potent.

The Georgia game demonstrated that a victory is not necessary to supply confidence, and certainly confidence is a large factor in the activity of any individual or team. The 'Gators know that Kentucky, strong team that it is, has thrice been beaten this fall, and every effort will be put forth by Coach Dutch Stanley and his squad in Lexington Saturday, to stop the Florida losing streak.

In spite of the fact that their defense wobbled in mid field, the 'Gators repelled the Georgians, with but one exception, when advances were made in the goal line vicinity. The play of the line was in many respects little short of brilliant.

And do not forget that the 'Gators are going to do some sharp-shooting before long. You can not keep down a team that has the offensive determination and versatility of the 'Gators. When several of this array of Florida backfield material—Capt. Billy Chase, Jack Beekwith, Jesse Jones, Hub McAnly, Duke Warren, Bob Ivey, Walter Mayberry, Ken Eppert, Ken Willis, Walter Middiekauff, Bugs Hendricks, Bill Stephens, Red Stephens, LaRue Osborn, put together some A-1 performances, then you'll find some touchdowns in the making.

It looks as if this Saturday against Kentucky the 'Gators will have their full strength ready for the first time this season. If it hasn't been Hendricks, it has been Beekwith and Rickett, or if not one of these or both of them, it has been McAnly, or Kleitter, or Jenkins. Florida has been hampered by injuries, and the coaches have never been able to organize and carry through the line-ups they have planned upon. This week it may be different.

Robert Rickett played a while against Georgia, and ought to be back in stride for the Kentucky fray. The 'Gators have not had a better pass receiver in several years. Then there is Hubert Schuch, who has turned in at least two stand-out exhibitions this fall; Floyd Christian, Johnny Burroughs, Wareing Miller, Joe Jenkins, R. Roy Duggan, Madison Mumbauer—all ends, and each with a pair of hands itching for a forward pass. The line troupe of wingmen, into your backfield group and add to a running attack the threat of forwards and laterals—and the 'Gators have shown a disposition to be foxy with both—and you will have something in the way of offensive pyrotechnics that may be difficult to suppress.

This is not to infer that the 'Ga-

COLLEGE SCANDAL

Mohney slipped away in the third frame on a forty-three yard jaunt but the referee ruled that he had stepped outside. Remember the groan that went up? Captain Wert's team showed up well against the undefeated Vols.

New stuff to '27: Gamage replaced Murphy who had resigned because of illness. Work was started on MeVey hall. Dean Tureh goes to Centre, Alvin Evans replaces him. Farquhar heads new magazine, Letters. Bureau of School Service is started with Dr. Reeves in charge.

In a cold drizzling rain the Cat-chief, Claire Dees, led his men to victory over Centre, 8-0. Centre hadn't prayed hard enough, obviously, for while she outplayed the 'Cat team, the game was stolen from her. Two wrongs made things right: see 1926. Ed Covington was only star.

New in '28: Frank Fowler heads the Romans, renamed the Guignol. Book store, rained out of the gym, is moved to MeVey hall. MeVey hall is finished in February, 1929. Elizabeth Michler is first blond and smallest member of Engineering College. Is third girl to enter, when interviewed, said, "delighted with the course." Major Merdith replaces Colonel Hobbs as P. M. S. & T. Mary Lewis Marvin is band sponsor. U. K. Rhythm Kings Orchestra returned after playing way through Europe. Kirk Moberly is cheer leader. Kernel holds straw vote on Hoover-Smith election.

In a driving wind and snow Kentucky outplayed a great Tennessee team. Twenty thousand fans saw the Vols tie us, 6-6. The Depression had started, but the Vols had swallowed the canary.

hall dedicated. How Shipwreck Kelly got his name? How the U. K. Rhythm Kings played their way through the Orient? Captain Grady joined the Military department. Birth of the talkies. Wallace Hoeling, drum major and Laura Pettigrew, band sponsor. Ed Covington, first footballer, became father of a seven-pound baby girl on September 24. Kulper is made the Philosophy department. Dean Holmes and Trainer Mann joins faculty.

Alabam carried on with her jinx when she knocked us out of Rose Bowl hopes on the wrong end of a 19-0 score. Twenty-four thousand fans saw the game. Also the shaving of the longest whiskers, property of Harold Ray. The game was radioed, Kentucky's first. The R. O. T. C. unit marched to the stands and acted as a cheering section. Floppy Forquer was the 'Cat captain.

Happenings to '30: New Education building finished. Independent Tobacco warehouse bought. Part becomes the Gym annex, rest is for Buildings and Grounds department. Miniature golf. The Moonshiner. U. K. comic magazine. The drouth, they never did close the University; the studies should have prayed for Hell and high water instead. R. O. T. C. gets new uniforms, everyone pleased with slacks and gripped at blue lapels. Crisswell, Schelba and Cunningham join Military staff. Jerry Dean Anderson's alreadie died September 18, and is buried beneath the sundial. Fuzzy, team mascot, omits suicide September 28 by hanging self. Maron Custard, drum major, and Virginia Dougherty, band sponsor. Bill Ardery's colyum, Sneers, Snickers, Scandal.

In '31 Wade transferred his jinx from Alabama to Duke. In a game which they were outplayed in every box, Duke handed us a 7-0 tag. The Athletic association, in answer to President Hoover's plea to schedule post season charity games turned over $4,500, their share of the game, to relief. The weather, in marked contrast to the past was sweet and balmy.

'31 brought us: Largest enrollment, 3,230. Babe Wright, captain. Shipwreck Kelly, alternate captain. Ralph Kercheval, Kentucky's best—the one-man team. The new Observatory and the new Library. Cohen, Shaver and Morton Walker to the faculty. Bill Tilden's visit. 'T' Company, R. O. T. C. Band and team go to Washington to play Maryland, band hikes feet off, team meets Hoover and gets picture taken. Studies vote 10-1 against resuming athletic relations with Centre. Co-op buying for the frats.

Wear your ear muffs. It's so cold the keys in the band instruments freeze shut. Tulane brings her band. She also brought Zimmerman, who got mad when Kerchy made a field goal in the last five minutes. Jimmy got all steamed up and made a touchdown in the last minute of play. Score 6-3. What a jolt!

Hot news, '32: Attorney General Wooten says McVey is not a state officer. Dean Funkhouser goes on leave to travel around globe. T. T. Jones to sub for him. Craddock starts his Quis Vadit? series. B. E. Brewer, '08, relieves Col. Merdith as P. M. S. & T. Old Patterson home is to become Women's building. Specially imported Voodoo Doctors work for a week trying to bury Alabam jinx. N. G. we lose, 12-7. Sleepy Hammond wins a three buck bet. He goes three days without food. University police force gets new uniforms; ahem Officer Kelly. Sucky stops selling pop in stands, too much broken glass...first student directory since 1929 comes out. Crosby Bean is drum major and Elizabeth Jones, sponsor of the band.

A game, but outplayed team went to defeat against Tennessee, 27-0. This was Kerchy's last year on the team. Our best athlete, he was the mainstay and a quadruple threat man. Gamage resigns as coach and Wynne is appointed in his place. Kreuter is captain of the pointless team, so called because our first games were won by one, two and three-point margins.

Improvements to '33: Dean Melcher retires, T. T. Jones is appointed in his place. Movie rushing stopped, free tickets given to students. Studies and faculty cars must be registered in the Dean of Men's office. Bromo Sulzer takes over publicity full time, John Lewis becomes band director. Bob McDowell and Al Eckles are drum majors, Margaret (keen little hiker) Walker is sponsor. Wildan Thomas instructs the Women's Riding club. Plan Student Union building (Alumni please note). Doctor Clyde goes to Japan for a year's study. Doctor Richard Brauer joins the math department.

Last year we performed a noteworthy feat. The 'Cats were the only team to score twice on the champs, Alabama. True, it's small consolation when we had to expect to lick the Tide plenty, but we were in good company. Shades of 1910 and before! What is this, Alabama couldn't bring her band so the Transy band was invited by us to substitute for her. Think of the revolving energy going to waste in the old grads' graves! (Engineers please note).

The band changed their uniforms again last year. They raised the money with Major Brewer's help. You ought to see them, they look like their reputation has always been, the best. Harold Stockton replaced Eckles as assistant drum major. He is now Chief D. M. and Rosemary Clinkscales is sponsor in place of Margaret Walker. Captain Grady was transferred to China and Lieutenant Rees to Panama. Replacing them are Majors Triplett and Scudder. The Kernel adds the INS service.

There you are, honorable predecessors, look yourselves over. You are always saying that you were going to come up and see us some time. Why not do it now and watch us skin the 'Gators? Hang around after the game and we might make you a belt from the hide.

ALL-GREEK HOP ON DECEMBER 7

Military Department, Sucky to Aid Council in Forming Freshman Cheering Section

The first formal dance of the year, the Intrafraternity Ball, will be given by the Interfraternity Council Saturday, December 7, in the Alumni Gym according to an announcement by Frank Dalley, president of the council. A nationally-known orchestra will be scheduled for the dance.

Plans are now being made to make it the best dance of the year. The hours will be from 9 until 12. The price of admission has not been decided.

The council at their last meeting decided to take measures to make the cheering section function better at the football games. With the aid of Colonel Brewer, the Military department and Sucky, the cheering section will probably function better at the homecoming game than it has in other games this year. All freshmen will sit together in the stadium according to military companies. A special cheer leader will be assigned to the freshman section and as a result of the forming of this cheering section the yells from the student body should be more lusty, and the pep displayed should be greater.

Frank Dalley will represent the local council at the National Interfraternity council conference which will convene at New York City Nov. 29 and 30.

The next meeting of the Interfraternity council will be held Monday, Nov. 11 at the Phi Delta Theta house.

The University of Minnesota has its own news reel theatre.

Doctor Barkenbus Resumes Teaching

Dr. Charles Barkenbus, professor of organic chemistry, who recently received severe acid burns, resumed his teaching duties at Kastle hall yesterday morning.

While working in the laboratory two weeks ago, Professor Barkenbus slipped and fell into a middle of highly concentrated solution of sulphuric acid caused by a student who dropped a bottle of the fluid on the floor. It was while investigating the accident that Doctor Barkenbus was hurt.

Students who were working in the laboratory at the time carried the doctor to a sink in the room and helped him remove his clothing which had already been partly dissolved by the acid. Later, the professor received treatment at the Good Samaritan hospital.
